neral and Reven Secretariat — pris. File No. 47 of 1934 — [App. F.]

Serial No.
1	From the I. G. of Prisons. No. 2033-6 Dt. 25-1-35. Recommends the grant of privilege leave combined with 3 mos furlough on average salary to Mr. M. Venkoba Rao, chief jailor, central jail, preparatory to retirement.

1) Mr. Venkoba Rao's services had been extended for one year in the G.O. dated 28-8 and he is due for retirement on 3-3-35. The I.G.P. recommends the grant of ~~privilege leave, commuted on average salary~~, 3 months privilege leave combined with 3 months furlough on average salary to him from 3-3-35 preparatory to his retirement. The financial Secretary may be consulted in the matter.

As regards the arrangements to be made to fill up the vacancy the I.G. of Prisons proposes to promote Mr. Ramappa, Dy. Jailor on Rs 100 – 5 – 125 as chief jailor on Rs 150 – 5 – and to draft a police officer from the police dept. to the post of Deputy jailor. ~~[illegible]~~ Submit for orders.

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS IN MYSORE, BANGALORE

The General Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honor to report that Mr.M.Venkoba Rao, Chief Jailor, Central Jail, Bangalore who attained his 55th birthday on 3rd March 1934 and whose services were extended for one year in Govt Order No.G.1294-5/Pris- 6-33-2 dated the 28th August 1933 is due for retirement on 3rd March 1935. Before completing the age of superannuation, he applied for 4 months' privilege leave combined with 2 months' furlough on average salary, but was refused the leave as his assistance was very necessary in connection with the revision of the Prisons Act and the Jail and Lock-up Manuals.(Please vide paras 2 and 3 of my letter No.1323-4 dated the 21st November 1933 in this connection.) He now claims under Article 147 M.S.R. the leave refused to him in the interests of Public Service. The Superintendent of the Jail also strongly recommends him for the leave. In these circumstances, I recommend that three months' privilege leave combined with 3 months' furlough on average salary may kindly be sanctioned to the official with effect from 3rd March 1935, preparatory to his retirement.

As regards the arrangements to be made to fill up the vacancy, I propose that Mr.Ponnappa, Deputy Jailor on Rs.100-5-125 may be promoted to be Chief Jailor on Rs.150-5-175 - the appointment to be 'acting' during the period of leave proposed to be granted to Mr.Venkoba Rao and to be confirmed thereafter. For the post of Deputy Jailor, it is necessary to draft a smart Police Officer who is at least a graduate and not lower in rank than a senior Sub-senior Sub Inspector or preferably an Inspector in the junior grade. The Officer selected should be on probatio for one year, subject to confirmation if his services are found satisfactory, or reversion to the Police Department if otherwise. I request sanction to the appointment being made in this manner and on these terms, in consultation with the Inspector General of Police.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Subba Rao.

Inspector General of Prisons

Letter No.1323-4 dated 21st November 1933 from the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, to the General Secretary to Government.

With reference to your letter No.G.2621/Pris. dated the 23/24th October 1933, I have the honour to state that, in my opinion, it is very necessary that revised editions of the Mysore Jail and Lockup Manuals should be issued duly incorporating therein the corrections made up-to-date. In this connection, I have to point out that the rules in the Mysore Jail Manual being merely veroatim reproductions of those in the Madras Jail Manual which have for their legal basis the British Indian Act No.IX of 1894 are in many respects far in advance of the Prisons Act of 1870 on which they are based. For instance, Section 47 of the 1870 Act, which alone is in force in Mysore, declares only 11 actions to be offences against Prison Discipline, while rule 275 Mysore Jail Manual gives 43 instances of them. While, again, Section 48 in the Act empowers the Superintendent of a Jail to punish prison offences by solitary confinement, or penal diet or whipping or by hard labour, Rules 278, 279 and 280 of the Mysore Jail Manual provide for punishing them with forfeiture of remission and imposition of handcuffs and fetters. There are thus a number of rules of the like in our Jail Manual which do not find necessary legal sanction in the Act.

I therefore propose to revise both the Act and the Jail Manual so that the provisions in the one may not be at variance with those in the other. The Superintendent of the Bangalore Central Jail, whom I have already consulted in the matter ~~in the matter~~, has agreed to undertake the work with the assistance of Mr. Venkoba Rao, Jailor, who has had long and varied experience in the Department and submit the necessary draft of the new Act as well as of the Jail and Lockup Manuals within a period of six months.

The proposed revision of the Act and the Manuals involves heavy additional work to the Chief Jailor and it is but reasonable reasonable that he should be adequately remunerated for this. I therefore recommend that he may be given an honorarium of Rs.300/- after the work is completed.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter No.2033-6 dated the 25th January 1935, I have the honor to forward herewith for kind disposal, an application received from Mr.Mahomed Obeidulla, retired Superintendent, Central Jail, (through the Private - Secretary to the Dewam) requesting that his son who is a Graduate in Psychology may be entertained in the vacancy of Jailor in that Institution.

As will be seen from the proposals already submitted, it is not the post of Jailor for which a recruit is needed but that of Deputy Jailor on Rs.100-5-125. For reasons which I have explained in detail it is essential that the incumbent to this post should be a smart and experienced Police Officer who is a Graduate and is of the rank of an Inspector in the Police Department-

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.G.7758/Pris. 47-34-2 dated the 13/14th instant, enquiring why the claims of the Jailor Mr.M.S.Narayana Rao should not be considered in connection with the vacancy of Deputy Jailor in the Central Jail, I have the honor to state that Mr.Narayana Rao is a very poorly qualified man, having a poor knowledge of English. Apart from this, he has not the capacity nor the ability to handle efficiently the duties pertaining to a Deputy Jailor in a big Institution like the Centre Jail. I may explain further that whoever is taken on as the Deput Jailor now is, within the next few years, to rise to the position of Chief Jailor; so that it is absolutely necessary that a really first class man should be recruited for the post.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

SIR.

In forwarding herewith copy of letter No.340/F.12 dated the 21st February 1935 regarding the grant of 6 months' combined leave to Mr.M.Venkoba Rao, Chief Jailor, preparatory to his retirement, I have the honour to recommend that, in consideration of the fact that Mr.Venkoba Rao was refused the leave, though he applied for it sufficiently in advance, solely, as already reported in my letter No.2033-6 dated the 25th Jany. 1935, for the reason that his assistance was felt indispensible by the Superintendent of the Jail in connection with the important work of revising and rewriting in part the Prisons Act and the Jail and Lockup Manuals, the economy order restricting the grant of leave to 2 months may be waived in this case. As will be seen from the drafts of the Prisons Act and the Lockup Manual submitted with my letters Nos.1323-8 and 1323-12 dated 6th September and 6th December 1934, great pains have been taken to render the Act and the Manual comprehensive and it is clear that the Chief Jailor has devoted all his spare time for several months towards this work. His services seem to me to merit special recognition by the grant of the concession applied for as regards his leave.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

S. Subba Rao

Inspector General of Prisons.

Letter No.340/F.12 dated the 21st February 1935 from the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore, to the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

With reference to your memo No.2033-9 of the 20th inst. forwarding a copy of the General Secretary's letter No.G.7758/P 47-34½2 of the 14th instant on the subject of leave to Mr.M.Venk Rao, preparatory to his retirement, I have the honour to inform you that the leave was applied for a year and a half ago sufficiently in time to have been given to him six months before he attained 55 years of age and that the refusal now of it has deprived him of the oppertunity of his having taken rest earlier by that period which he could have and certainly would have don Instead of the leave, we gave him an extension of service and put him on the Special duty in connection with the revision of the Prisons Act and the Jail and Lock-up Manuals. He could not have struck work and applied for leave all along lest he be considered as a conceited man. He therefore reapplied for the leave only when he knew that his services would no longer be required and still when it could be given to him according to r I request you therefore to move the Government once more to reconsider his application and grant him the full combined leave he could be given according to rules.

2. The economy order which stands in the way of sanctioning the recommendation is not yet incorporated in the service regul tions and consequently can become applicable only to future cas

3. The loss Mr.Venkoba Rao has to suffer by the refusal of the leave is two-fold. He will ~~xixx~~ lose salary for the period and will only get less than half of it by way of pension and th the average emoluments which could be taken into consideration in determining the amount of his pension will be proportionatel less. The total loss will be about Rs.368/- as pay and one rupe as pension for life. This is very hard for a man in his positi

He has done extremely good work in the Department. His untiring energy and zeal, lovalty to superiors and long service certainly deserve good treatment at the time of his retirement. Moreover, I feel that by refusing leave under the rules and in the interest of public service we are bound in honour and in th interest of our prestige as his official superiors to respect our promise and obtain kind sanction of Government. In these circumstances, I strongly urge that a further representation ma kindly be made to Government to reconsider their orders and grant him the full period of leave to which he is entitled, as an exceptional case.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter No.2033-6 dated 25th January 1935, I have the honour to submit herewith copy of D.O. letter dated the 16th January 1935 from the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore and to recommend that sanction of Govt may kindly be obtained, in consultation with the Inspector-General of Police for the appointment of Mr.T.M.Ameer, B.A., as Deputy Jailor Vice Mr.M.M.Ponnappa. He is at present drawing a pay of Rs.80/- in the Police Department. I understand that he is a capable Officer and would do well for the Central Jail.

As Mr.Venkoba Rao has been relieved from the 2nd instant and the appointment of Deputy Jailor is vacant, I reques the favour of very early sanction to the appointment proposed.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Subba Rao

Inspector General of Prisons.

D.O.letter dated 16th January 1935 from the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore, the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

With reference to your D.O.No.2033 dated 8-1-35, I write to say that the enclosed list gives the names of one junior Inspector and 8 Sub Inspectors of Police.

It will be seen therefrom that two of the Sub Inspectors one Graduate and one Inspect is a double Graduate. The pay of a Sub Inspect varies from 55 to 80 and that of an Inspector from 100 to 150/-

Of the persons mentioned in the list I know Mr.T.M.Ameer, B.A.,. He has passed the B.A.Examination with Kanarese as his optional language. He is an athlete and possess good physique. He has experience of Taluk work and Prosecution work. I therefore recommend him for appointment as Deputy Jailor.

As for the other Under Graduate Sub-Insp

Sub Inspectors, I am not in favour of any, as I fear they may not be able to cope with the clerical work and may not possess necessary knowledge of Law to check warrants etc.
